

Toft's and Summit Motorsports Park™ race into 2008 with a nitro-burning contest!

Toft's Dairy is pleased to announce that in conjunction with Summit Motorsports Park in Norwalk, Ohio, they are pleased to hold the "Night Under Fire" promotional giveaway. Starting April 27, ice cream and race fans will have the chance to win 8 reserved seats to the August 2, 2008 "Night Under Fire™" races at Summit Motorsports Park. The Grand Prize winner will also win 8 food vouchers, VIP parking, be named the honorary starter plus merchandise and be able to participate in other on-track activities. Runner up prizes will win gallons of Toft's ice cream, plus Summit Motorsports Park and Toft's wearables. Fans can enter by going to www.toftdairy.com, www.summitmotorsportspark.com or by filling out and returning the special coupon that appears in the coupon section of select Sunday, April 27 newspapers.

The 31st anniversary of Summit Motorsports Park's signature event is the largest single day of drag racing in the world. Race fans come from not only Ohio, but all over the United States, Canada and the world. The Night Under Fire is a sight, sound and feel extravaganza. People are blown away by the flames and fireworks and the ear-crushing sound of the jet powered cars and nitro-belching Funny Cars. Night Under Fire has a look and feel all its own, climaxed by a $100,000 fireworks display.

Toft's and Summit Motorsports Park™ – A pound of ice cream for $1.00!

One pound of Toft's ice cream for a dollar! Since Bill Bader, Sr. began selling ice cream for a dollar in 1987, fans have lined up all day long for a chance to taste the smooth, creamy, decadent delight in as many flavors as there are choices. During the inaugural Summit Racing Equipment NHRA Nationals in the summer of 2007, Summit Motorsports Park served 24,994 pounds of Toft's ice cream. Kids, parents, and grandparents all savor the opportunity to enjoy this Norwalk tradition. And every year, Toft's and Summit Motorsports park are proud to offer this treat for their guests and families.
